Hearing Set for Small Business Owners to Comment About Excessive Federal Regulatory Enforcement

SANTA ANA, CA – Small business owners, community leaders and representatives of trade associations concerned about excessive enforcement of federal rules can voice their complaints at a U.S. Small Business Administration Regulatory Fairness Board Hearing in Anaheim on Tuesday, March 1 from 8:30 to 11 a.m.

The hearing will be held at the City of Anaheim, Gordon Hoyt Center, 201 South Anaheim Boulevard, 2nd floor.

SBA National Ombudsman Michael Barrera, members of SBA's Region IX Regulatory Fairness Board, and representatives of federal regulatory agencies will hear comments and complaints about regulatory enforcement and compliance.

"One of the biggest concerns small business owners face is unfair enforcement of federal regulations. They also worry about telling their stories because they fear retaliation by federal agencies," Barrera said. "Small business owners want to play by the rules and comply with federal regulations," he added, "and we want to encourage federal regulators to assist business owners with compliance rather than go straight to the penalty stage."

This forum offers small business owners a chance to express their concerns about federal compliance practices in SBA's Santa Ana District area, which includes Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties.

Comments and complaints presented during the hearing will be directed to the appropriate federal regulatory agency. This information will also be shared with federal officials in the Ombudsman's annual report to Congress, and with managers of federal regulatory agencies to assist them with their enforcement actions.

The National Ombudsman's authority to respond to comments on compliance issues is limited to federal regulatory enforcement matters and does not include concerns about obtaining federal contracts, regulations in general, or securing guaranteed loans.

The Anaheim hearing is open to the public. Those wishing to testify should contact Dace Pavlovskis at (714) 550-7420, extension 3601, or by e-mail at dace.pavlovskis@sba.gov before the hearing. Should a small business owner or representative be unable to attend, written testimony may be sent in advance of the hearing to be included in the public record.
